

Why Canada Should Support Negotiations for a Global Ban on Nuclear Weapons

Speakers:

Hélène Laverdière - NDP MP for Laurier – Ste-Marie and NDP Critic for Foreign Affairs. She is a former Canadian diplomat who was posted to Chile, Senegal, and Washington, D.C.

Earl Turcotte - Disarmament specialist and Canada's former chief negotiator of the Convention on Cluster Munitions.

Peggy Mason - Canada's former Ambassador for Disarmament to the United Nations and President of the Rideau Institute

Wednesday, October 26, 2016

6:00 P.M. – 7:00 P.M.
(Arrive at 5:30 P.M. for security)
Parliament East Block
Room 362, Ottawa